Foreword

Ladies and gentlemen, welcome to Woodside and to this evening's concert.

For entertainment on an evening in late summer, a programme of relaxed, easy-listening would seem appropriate. So, tonight's concert offers you just that, but in a variety of styles and moods which we hope will satisfy most tastes. Much of the material is taken from works for the stage – some familiar and some perhaps not quite so well-known.

We invite you to sit back, relax and enjoy this selection of "Songs in Summer".
